

About Frontline GEC

Founded in 2020 by two experienced industry leaders, Jesus Pedroza and Kevin Sandhu, with just 2 employees and zero revenue, Frontline General Construction has grown exponentially over a few short years. Through relentless dedication, hands-on leadership, and a commitment to excellence, the company now forecasting to operates with a skilled team of 60 employees and $15 million in revenue and manages 30+ major equipment assets.

This remarkable trajectory reflects our founders’ deep industry knowledge and the company’s core values - integrity, quality, and innovation.

We have successfully delivered diverse construction projects while maintaining high-performance ratings and building long-term client relationships and Sub-Contractor networks.

Our vision is to expand strategically across California, establishing Frontline as a trusted leader in residential, commercial, infrastructure, and specialty construction sectors. As we grow, we aim to diversify our capabilities, adopt sustainable and modern building practices, and become a go-to partner for complex construction needs.

We are committed to:

- ❑ Extending our presence across new markets and industries.
- ❑ Investing in advanced technology and workforce development.
- ❑ Delivering excellence at every stage—from planning to execution.

At Frontline General Construction, we don’t just construct buildings—we build trust, deliver growth, and shape the future of construction with every project. At Frontline General Construction, we don’t just construct buildings, we build trust, deliver growth, and shape the future of construction with every project.
